For Immediate Release
Saranac Lake, NY | April 24, 2024

“Party on the Patio” the flagship concert series hosted by the Waterhole Music Lounge in Saranac Lake, kicks off tomorrow, Thursday April 25th and will continue to rock & roll every single Thursday night from 6-10pm until mid October, boasting 26 concerts in total.

This year’s lineup will introduce 12 new bands to the Party on the Patio (POP) audience and welcomes back many crowd favorites. The eclectic lineup offers something for every type of music listener & encourages the crowd to expand their musical horizons.

“Playing “POP” feel like a musical family reunion. It brings everyone out of the woodwork to collectively enjoy our community” musician, Arthur Buezo said.

Genre are wide-ranging and often times multi-disciplinary. Listeners can expect to hear all sorts of sounds including but not limited to: Indie R&B, Neo-Soul, Groove Grass, Vintage Funk, Sci-Fi Fusion, Afro-Beat, Boogie & Blues, Nu-Jazz, Synth-Washed Electro Rock, Improvised Electronic Dance Music, Roots & Blues, Ragtime, Folk, Latin Dance Music, Roots Rock, and more!

The Waterhole Music Lounge is the premier live music venue of the Adirondacks, a favorite spot amongst locals and tourists alike. With 2 bars, extensive outdoor patio space, and a sizable drink menu, the Waterhole is the place to be in downtown Saranac Lake! As the name suggests, Party on the Patio is an OUTDOOR concert series. In the event of inclement weather, concerts move indoors to the Upstairs Music Hall.
