

In the Cantwell Room at the
Saranac Lake Free Library
Saranac Lake, NY

2.17.26 - 3.27.26

VISIONS OF SUDAN BEFORE CIVIL WAR:

photographs of a
time & place lost to conflict

Opening reception
Friday, March 6 - 5:30 - 7 pm

VISIONS OF SUDAN BEFORE CIVIL WAR

Featuring photographs by Denise Silfee

In the Cantwell Room at the
Saranac Lake Free Library
Saranac Lake, NY

2.17.26 - 3.27.26

VISIONS OF SUDAN BEFORE CIVIL WAR:

photographs of a
time & place lost to
conflict

Opening reception
Friday, March 6 - 5:30 - 7 pm

VISIONS OF SUDAN BEFORE CIVIL WAR

Featuring photographs by Denise Silfee

A photograph of a man in traditional Sudanese attire, including a white thobe and a turban, standing next to a large, rounded mud-brick structure with an arched opening. The structure is built in a desert environment under a clear blue sky. The man is leaning against the structure, and the scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.

VISIONS OF SUDAN BEFORE CIVIL WAR:

photographs of a
time & place lost to
conflict

2.17.26 - 3.27.26

In the Cantwell Room at the
Saranac Lake Free Library
Saranac Lake, NY

Opening reception
Friday, March - 6 5:30 - 7 pm

VISIONS OF SUDAN BEFORE CIVIL WAR

Featuring photographs by Denise Silfee

